DEER COUNTRY

Largely because it requires such an expanse of territory, foxhunting is probably beset with more problems than any other field sport. This situation is nothing new. A hundred and fifty years ago in Leicestershire, when hunting became all the rage, the droves of well-mounted, hard riding squires that descended upon Melton and proceeded to ride over hounds were the despair of Masters. During the same period in this country, as red foxes brought over from England began spreading through the south, the hounds developed to hunt the native grey had to be replaced by new importations—largely from Ireland—that were better equipped to hunt the foreigner in the red jacket. Foxhunting was formally buried by the pessimists when railway lines first made their appearance and the obsequies held after the advent of barbed wire were even more elaborate and doleful.

In our own times we have seen the accomplishment through taxation of a social revolution quite as sweeping as that advocated by Karl Marx. Private packs and even large subscriptions under our present economic system have almost become a thing of the past—yet fox hunting continues to flourish and to adapt itself to changing conditions.

Last December the Masters of Foxhounds Association sent out to Masters a questionnaire, the purpose of which was to ascertain the major problems now confronting fox hunting. Aside from wire and finances (which have long been with us) by far the largest number of Masters (34 out of 79 replies) cited deer as their principal problem. Other principal problems were: building encroachments (26), shooting and trapping foxes (17), game preserves and interference from gunners (11), disease in foxes (10), outlaw packs (8), grey foxes (4), and miscellaneous (6).

Why have deer increased to such a marked extent in recent years in our hunting countries? Basically, of course, the reason is that gunners and game commissions have made a systematic effort to build up the deer population. The encroachments of civilization and the indiscriminate slaughter which prevailed through the last century exterminated the herds in large areas. To correct this situation the commissions have relied upon restocking and a closed or closely regulated season.

This program has been extraordinarily successful—in many sections too successful. In Pennsylvania, for example, where a completely closed season on doe was maintained until recently, the deer herds have increased to a point where the forest ranges will no longer support them, so that there has been widespread starvation. Magazine articles have stated that the natural feed—the young shoots or browse—has been eaten off to a point where it has been permanently destroyed and its place taken by larger trees, so that the deer range has been ruined for at least a generation.

As the herds have become more numerous and as feed has become scarcer in their natural habitat, the deer have moved down from the forests into farming country, which is, of course, also hunting country. Farmers have not greeted their arrival with any marked enthusiasm, however. To most farmers deer mean only considerable damage to crops and a lot of city gunners roaming the land and endangering the lives of livestock and humans.

It is not our purpose to attack the sport of deer shooting. To a sportsman there is nothing quite so low as trying to kill another man's sport in order to further one's own. But we do say that deer shooting should be carried on in suitable country—in forest areas rather than on farms. It is up to all of us to put this idea over, with our representatives in the legislature and with our game commissions. We need state laws which will allow county officials to determine whether their county is deer country or farming country—just as we have state laws which allow county officials to determine whether or not the fox should be protected in their county. Deer country should be stocked and the shooting season regulated so as to provide maximum sport. Farming country, on the other hand, should have a shooting season that will keep the deer population within reasonable limits. Why, after all, should the taxes paid by farmers be used to stock farms with unwanted deer for the benefit of city gunners?

To-day most foxhunters are also farmers. To-day, as always, the interest of farmers by whose courtesy alone the sport is made possible, is also the interest of ALL foxhunters. Let us do everything we can to further deer shooting, but only where it belongs—in deer country.

Maryland Pony Show

Dear Sir:

In reading the results of the Maryland Pony Show in The Chronicle, we notice that Class No. 64—Maiden Hacks—over 12.2 hands, not exceeding 14.2 and Class No. 66—Novice Hacks—over 12.2 hands, not exceeding 14.2, were not even included in the results.

Limerick Lace III was the winner of both these classes as well as taking the blue in the two and three year old filly class and another blue in the produce of dam by Limerick Lace II. She was reserve champion of the cross-bred division thus making four blues she captured in the show. We feel this is a pretty good record for any two year old only broken less than three months.

Alden and Mickey have spent much time working with this filly and we are all very proud of her. She was broken and trained entirely by Mickey. Many judges have told him what a super job he had done with her. The worst thing is, we have to sell her as both Alden and Mickey have outgrown ponies. Although Alden is going to ride her in equitation at Timonium, it will be good experience for her.

I do not know why you left out both

RacingA SECTION DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS
OF THE TURFRacing Review*Stakes Results From Atlantic City, Hawthorne, Aqueduct, Narragansett and Golden Gate*Raleigh Burroughs*Atlantic City

An interesting experiment was conducted at Atlantic City on September 16th.

It is a known fact that the bugler who calls the horses to the post supplies a thrilling musical interlude. It is a signal to action; it carries a promise and it lets the players know that they have about eleven minutes to get their money down—a little longer on Saturdays when the crowd is larger.

Atlantic City's experiment was supported by logic and mathematics. If one bugler can trumpet a chain of notes that thrills the crowd, five buglers should bring five times the ecstasy—perhaps a little less, allowing for the law of diminishing returns, say four times.

It was mighty impressive even though the fellow who fitted the four added starters with hunting pink was the same guy who gave out the uniforms in World War I.

Some of the cynical pressbox habits spread the word around that only one man was blowing. This is untrue; a musician blowing by himself always finishes together.

There was moisture in the honest eye of Jim Ryan and a tremor in his voice as he spoke of the chances of Mrs. E. DuPont Weir's representatives in Atlantic City's turf couplet, the American Bred and Foreign Bred Stakes.

Struggling to control his emotion, he spoke affectionately of Royal Governor. "The old fellow", said Mr. Ryan, "really shouldn't be here. He's nine, you know, and most horses are retired before they reach such an age. *Royal Vale? He isn't up to a race as tough as this. He hasn't raced since July at Hollywood—definitely needs a race. I only hope he can manage to get up as far as fourth so he will qualify for the United Nations Handicap on September 26."

He smiled wanly, like a man who is licked but is determined to be sporting about it, and continued his discourse on the sorry chances of his charges. But the people around him no longer were listening. As the American Bred Stakes was coming up, some were revising their figures, on the basis of the inside information just received; others had slunk off to make their bets, happy in the knowledge that there was one less horse to whip.

The result was a delightful surprise to Honest Jim Ryan, but there were some mighty nasty remarks coming from the refined people on the dining terrace. It wouldn't have taken a Marcus Antonius to launch a lynching.

Luckily, everybody got square in *Royal Vale's race. Deciding, perhaps that the gleam in the Ryan eye had not been honesty, all went to the son of Kingsway and collected—at odds on. The good one, Royal Governor had got away, paying $13.60 to the conservatives who wagered only two.

Royal Governor, a nine-year-old chestnut gelding, by Pilate—Feathers, by John P. Grier, was bred by Mr. A. S. Hewitt. He had not won a race in seven starts this season, after a layoff since late in 1951, but his last try, in the Atlantic City Turf Handicap suggested that he was "coming to form."

Thasian Hero made the pace in the first four furlongs of the American Bred Stakes, with Joey Boy not far behind. Armageddon was up there for about a quarter and then dropped back. Royal Governor never was far from the two leaders and swept past them with about a half a mile to go to win by a neck over The Eagle. Potpouri, which was in close quarters at times, finished third about a length and a half behind the first two. Along with these three, Brush Burn, fourth to finish, will go into the United Nations Handicap against the first four in the Foreign Bred Stakes—*Royal Vale, *Iceburg II, *Stan and Palatial Appetite.

Ruhe, sent eastward by Hasty House Farm and made the favorite in the American Bred, might just as well have stayed in Chicago for all the money he got. He was sluggish in the early stages but gained a little in the stretch to finish sixth, beaten about three lengths. The time for the mile and one-eighth was 1:50 flat.

The Foreign Bred was easy for the "unready" *Royal Vale, though he won by only 1 1-4 lengths and didn't get to the front until midway in the stretch. His time was 1:49 2-5.

It required all of Jockey Westrope's skill to make the English-bred horse look as bad as he did.

Handicapper John P. Turner, Jr. knows how many pounds to allow for a length and a quarter margin. Right after the race he sat down to figure out how much lead to add in the U. N. Handicap, for a horse's head turned sideways.

*Royal Vale was bred by Mr. S. Baker. He is by Kingsway—Cora Deans, by Coronach. His share of the loot was $20,225. Royal Governor's prize amounted to $21,525.

After the American Bred Stakes, Miss America dragged her cute little horse-tail into the winner's circle and gave Westrope an enthusiastic buss. I was anxious to learn what she was going to do to Jackie after he made it two in a row. Whatever it was, it didn't happen in the winner's ring, as Miss A didn't show up, and I haven't been able to contact Westrope.

The Ventnor Handicap, September 19, at a mile and sixteenth on the turf attracted enough competitors to make up two races and Atlantic City split the event, giving the full $20,000 in added money to each division.

The first was won by the favorite and the second by a long shot. Logan Batcheller rode both.

Boncris Farm's Better Goods ran the eight and a half furlongs in 1:46 flat to account for Division One. Harold Polk's New Dream was second by half a length and John S. Phipps' Parnassus was third, only a nose off the place.

The race was worth $15,950 to the winner, and brought Better Goods' season's total to $52,850 and lifetime earnings to $62,800. He won the Yankee Handicap at Suffolk Downs in June.

The chestnut ridgeling is by Good Goods, out of Dustaway, a daughter of Whisk Broom II.

Boncris Farm is the racing establishment of Mr. C. J. DeVine.

Little Flirt II, an Irish-born filly, bred and owned by Mr. George A. Garrett, former Ambassador to Elre, took the honors in the second division of the Ventnor. She hung close to the pace-setting Buck N Gee from the break to the middle of the back stretch, then went into the lead and held it to the wire. She was a length ahead of Buck N Gee at the finish, with Platan a head farther back in third place.

By The Solicitor—Hedone, by Turkhan, Little Flirt II was scoring her first stakes win. In two seasons of racing she has earned $33,800.

Hawthorne

When Indian Hill temporarily retired from racing in August 1951, he was eligible to races for non-winners of three, except maiden or claiming. Since coming back to the track in August of this season he has added three more, in four starts, and capped his accomplishments with a stakes victory worth $19,600.

The five-year-old registered his first triumph in an added-money event the first time he ever raced in one. It was the Midwest Handicap on September 19. Made the favorite in the 6 1-2 furlong event on the strength of two earlier wins, Indian Hill justified the confidence of his backers by leading all the way, and held off Pomace by a margin of three-quarters of a length at the end. Second Avenue was four lengths farther back in third position.

The good filly Bella Fulgura broke down in the race.

Indian Hill is a black five-year-old horse by Burg-El-Arab. His dam is the Hard Tack mare, Brown Plumage. He is the property of George H. Knapp.

There must have been general rejoicing among the other owners operating in the Chicago area when Hasty House Farm moved out. Now everybody has a chance to win. Many of the second prizes at Arlington and Washington were as good as first monies elsewhere, but you can't fill your trophy room by having a horse that's next to the best.

Jenjay, which had been getting nowhere against Queen Hopeful, promptly became a stakes winner with the Midwest filly champ out of the way.

The Durazna Stakes is for two-year-old fillies at scale weight, 119 pounds. There are allowances of from three to nine pounds. Non-winners of two races, other than maiden or claiming, received the biggest benefit and all members of the field qualified under that clause. Six of the ten couldn't find jockeys small enough and had to carry overweights. Jenjay carried one extra pound so she raced under 111.

Jockey P. J. Bailey rated the daughter of Brookfield—Genevra M., by Percentage, perfectly, holding her three or four lengths behind the pace-makers for a half mile and then sending her to the front. She won the six-furlong event by two lengths. The purse was $12,750.

Roman Warbler, the favorite, finished second, and Sleepy Mabel, the pace-maker, ended up third.

The property of Mr. L. J. Tutt, Jenjay was bred by her owner.

Aqueduct

With Fisherman back in action we may be able to make some sense out of the juvenile situation. His cough cleared up, the son of Phalanx—Crawfish, by Halcyon, trimmed a good field in the Cowdin on September 16, and indicated that he will be a factor in the battle of the two-year-old championship.

He went the 6 1-2 furlongs in 1:17, only two-fifths of a second slower than the track record set by Hill Prince in the same race, and under the same weight, in 1949.

C. S. Lussky's Tuosix led most of the way, with Gotta Go and Swift Sword tagging along. The last mentioned dropped out of it after five-eighths of a mile; Gotta Go stuck it out a little longer.

Fisherman was under restraint for half a mile, but wore down his field in the long Aqueduct stretch and drew clear steadily. Tuosix saved second place and the lightly-regarded Galdar came from 'way back to get third.

The Cowdin purse of $16,950 put Fisherman up to $38,275. This colt, which might be the best of his age, was bred and is owned by C. V. Whitney. Trainer Silvester Veltech says he is "taking dead aim on that rich Jersey race", according to Brownie Leach's latest press release on "The Garden State".

In a weight-for-age race for fillies and mares at a mile and one-eighth, in September, the three-year-olds would

Spectator

Although closed as an overnight race this year, instead of a stake the Bushwick Hurdle Handicap had the outward trappings of a stake, including an added purse of $7,500. Eight horses went postward, and coming to the final hurdle, 5 of them were across the track. A stride short of this jump, Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Antagonizer, making his first start of the year, held the advantage, but as he rose for the takeoff, the Troiano entry of *Williamsburg and King Commander ranged up on either side to take command on the landing side of the hurdle. From there to the finish-line it was nip and tuck with Jockey A. P. Smithwick on King Commander finally prevailing to score by a length at the wire, while his stablemate was another 2 lengths in front of Antagonizer. A length and a half further back, Allison Stern's topweighted War Rhodes took the short end of the purse, with Hyvania, Bab's Whey, Battle Wave and Knocks Twice completing the field in that order.

Exactley 3:42 1-5 seconds earlier, Starter George Cassidy sent the field off in perfect alignment, and Antagonizer with 153 lbs. was quick to show the way. Ridden by Jockey F. D. Adams, this ex-McKinney jumper set out to duplicate his front running style of 1952, which netted him 3 wins from 3 starts in that season, and at one point in the Bushwick, Antagonizer's lead was a dozen lengths or more. In fact, it looked like a runaway victory. Closest to him during the first mile and a half of the journey was War Rhodes which carried 157 lbs. and he too was another dozen lengths in front of the remainder of the field, while the remaining six ran fairly well bunched. Going down the far side the last time Hyvania was the first of the trailers to set sail for the leaders, and midway down, he got to War Rhodes, but out in front Antagonizer still held a commanding lead. Meeting the last hurdle on the far side the wrong way, Hyvania dropped back to third, and then around the final turn, the tiring Antagonizer started to come back to the others. Rounding into the stretch, War Rhodes, Hyvania as well as *Williamsburg and King Commander loomed up as challengers for the lead, but it took until the final hurdle before the issue was well joined, and then the L. R. Troiano entry went on to win with authority.

King Commander under 148 lbs., second top weight of the field under the weight for age scale, scored his 4th victory in 9 starts this year, and has accumulated a rather impressive record. In 4 of his remaining starts he has been second, and in the one other, fourth. *Williamsburg, his stablemate, also a 4-year-old, and under an impost of 139 lbs., showed a good effort, but his record fails to show the consistency of King Commander.

Although beaten, Antagonizer showed an excellent effort for a horse that has been away for a year, and should improve off this race. Trainer Michael G. Walsh, who conditions both King Commander and *Williamsburg, bids fair to wind up the leading steeplechase trainer of the year. Last week, his wife's Reno Sam captured the $10,000 added Harbor Hill and between times he managed to win an overnight race.

This was a claiming hurdle earlier in the week which was taken by L. R. Troiano's Curly Joe. A three-year-old, Curly Joe was ridden by F. D. Adams, and in the last few strides, Adams got up to snatch a head victory from his stablemate, Mrs. M. G. Walsh's *Marshland 2nd. It was 6 lengths back to Blue Plate, and another half a length to Malling List. In fifth place, Mrs. S. C. Clark, Jr.'s Roman Way, the favorite showed an indifferent performance. Earlier in the day, Roman Way had coughed slightly, and ran a small fever, but the track veterinarian would not excuse him from racing.

The following day, Tuesday, Sept. 15th, F. E. Dixon, Jr.'s Blue Plate, which evidently considered his race behind Curly Joe and *Marshland 2nd, the day before, as something of "long blow out", met a little cheaper brand of platers over the mile and a half hurdle distance, and scampered home 2 1-2 lengths in front of Escarp. Billing Bear and Rewing completed the money positions in a race that offered few surprises, but did see Louis Prima's Rythminhim refuse to budge from the starting line.

On Wed. Sept. 16th, a newcomer to 'chasing, Mrs. M. F. Drinkhouse, saw her colors win aboard a four-year-old Eight Thirty—Dark Lovliness gelding. This was Midnite Raid, a horse which had shown a dislike for dirt tracks and starting gates, but which gives promise of developing into a nice kind of a hurdler. Ridden by Jockey George Foot, Midnite Raid was held off the early pace set by *Pacific Pact, then was moved up down the far side, reached contention on the final turn, and

*Done Sleeping Sets Fair Hill Record

Moot Makes It 2 Straight In Annexing The Manly; Step Dance Wins Over Hurdles

Nancy G. Lee

Fair Hill's 2-day meeting came to a successful close on September 19 and while the spectators might have been greater in number, the races more than upheld their end of the bargain. The pari-mutuel setup apparently went over very well and more than one person proudly flaunted a daily double ticket which paid over $19.00. This meeting concludes the Maryland hunt meeting circuit for this season but marks the beginning of the fall meetings which will be held in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Virginia.

Last year The Cecil County Steeplechase (timber) started Mr. E. Weymouth and George T. Weymouth's *Done Sleeping on a winning streak which extended to 4 more trips to the winner's circle and eventually the timber horse honors for 1952. Starting only 3 times this spring, *Done Sleeping had a 2nd and 3rd and then came to grief in The Maryland Hunt Cup. Fair Hill was his first outing since the Hunt Cup and he was coupled in the betting with Mrs. C. P. Denckla's Ned's Flying for this year's renewal of the timber race.

The flag went down and the field of 7 got off to a very good start far out "in the country" and as they race straight toward the stands, it is a bit hard to accurately say which one is heading the pack. However, within seconds there was no question about the pace setter as Jockey W. H. Dixon was away winging on Vernon G. Cardy's Furnace Run. This now almost white gelding has gone the long way around to get to the races. Bred by R. K. Mellon, he was sent to the training stable of Mrs. D. N. Lee at Middleburg, Va. as a 2-year-old, accompanied by yearlings which were to be broken. His racing career did not materialize and he was show ring bound. Now at the sprightly age of 10 the Runantell gelding was at the track.

After the 2nd jump the field turns slightly right-handed and the course lies through the 'chute' and the 3rd jump is almost hidden. Only the rising of the horses over the jump gives any indication that the obstacle is there. Five of the horses then went to the right of the Chinese Wall (the big 13th jump in the Foxcatcher National Cup 'Chase) but Furnace Run and Jockey J. Fisher on Miss Alva Robinson's Icy Fingers chose to go to the left. This caused some confusion among the spectators as the camp was divided as to whether the two latter horses had gotten off the course. They had more or less just taken the long way around and came back into the group approaching the 4th jump. Their additional curriculum was an opportunity for others to gain ground and this factor was not overlooked by Jockey P. Furnival riding Charles C. Jelke's Happy Quest. Happy Quest led over the 4th but after landing and going slightly left-handed, Jockey Dixon gained numerous lengths with Furnace Run and headed the group over the 5th with Icy Fingers 2nd, Miss Laura Franklin's Gliding Slide 3rd and Ned's Flying 4th.

Approaching the 6th, Icy Fingers was winging right along and this was his fence with Furnace Run ahead of Happy Quest, Ned's Flying and Gliding Slide.

The horses raced on the flat in the infield in front of the stands and with Furnace Run again taking the lead over the 7th, all were over safely except Jockey D. M. Smithwick on Gliding Slide which went down.

Around the turn and over the 8th, the course lies out in the country and at the 9th, Ned's Flying, Icy Fingers and Furnace Run made a good hunt team as they jumped head and head. Mr. Weymouth and *Done Sleeping had moved into the 5th slot over the 8th and were now 4th at the 9th jump ahead of Happy Quest. *Done Sleeping really landed running and a check at the 10th jump showed the 10-year-old brown gelding on top with Ned's Flying and Icy Fingers following.

*Done Sleeping had previously run in a pelham but a switch had been made to a snaffle for this race and he was taking full advantage of the change, opening up by some 5 lengths over the 11th jump.

Logs make up the 12th jump and every year this one is overlooked in watching the race and consequently when the finish looms and the horses are supposed to have jumped 17 fences, only 16 have been checked. Backtracking a bit, the field is picked up at the 13th which marks a complete turn of the course and *Done Sleeping still held his advantage with Ned's Flying, Icy Fingers, John Strawbridge's Black News, Happy Quest and a tired Furnace Run completing the field. At the 16th Mr. C. Meister made his bid on Black News to jump head and head with Ned's Flying but then he dropped back going into the 17th and last. *Done Sleeping still showed the way with Ned's Flying, Black News and Icy Fingers behind him. In the stretch drive, *Done Sleeping raced in easily to win by 4 lengths, Ned's Flying 2nd by 10, Icy Fingers gaining 3rd by 5 and Black News finished some 50 lengths ahead of

KENTUCKY

Hanes-Combs Mares

To dissolve their partnership, John W. Hanes and Leslie Combs II will sell 9 broodmares at the Keeneland November Sales. They are among the group purchased from William Goetz last year.

Three daughters of *Alibhai and the same number by *Beau Pere are included in the group. The remaining trio are by Empire Builder, Hua and Stimulus.

Among the Hanes-Combs consignment are *Jerrybuilt, dam of Good Excuse, Solidarity and Conversion; and the Australian stakes winner and stakes producer *Hugette.

Busy Breaker

John T. Ward of Lexington is breaking 75—that's right, 75—yearlings this year. His "stable" is split into several divisions, one at Keeneland and the others quartered on various farms in the neighborhood.

Work Well Rewarded

So scarce are exercise boys around Central Kentucky at this season of yearling breaking that a lot of the more energetic and ambitious riders are holding down two jobs, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. A few are even squeezing in a third job. At $200-300 a month from each, that really bulges the wallet.

Maine Chance Yearlings Shipped

Two dozen yearlings owned by Mrs. Elizabeth N. Graham have been shipped from Leslie Combs II's Spendthrift Farm, Lexington, to Mrs. Graham's Maine Chance Farm stable at Belmont Park.

One of the most promising of the group is the first foal of Myrtle Charm, one of the best 2-year-old fillies of 1948. This is a Jet Pilot colt. Another son of Jet Pilot regarded as a good prospect is from War Date, also a fine race mare in her day. Also well thought of in the Maine Chance group is a Hyperion—Silence colt.

Eques-Zyme Sold

J. H. Ransom, Lexington, Ky., has announced the sale of his Eques-Zyme, Inc., maker of a horse-feed supplement, to H. H. Mildrum, Shiremanstown, Penn. Mr. Ransom will continue to direct the company's sales organization.

Beaumont Mares

The 37 mares in the dispersal of Hal Price Headley's Beaumont Farm, Lexington, include 12 daughters of Menow, half a dozen by his sire *Pharomond II, 4 daughters of Revoked, 3 by *Rico Monte, and 2 daughters apiece of Equipoise and Johnstown. The other Headley mares, which will be auctioned at the Keeneland November Sales, are sired by Johnstown's sire Jamestown, Jean Valjean, Man o'War, his son War Admiral, Pennant, Ramases the Second, Sir Damion and *Sir Gallahad III.

All but 9 of the Headley group have already proved their class, either themselves on the race course or through their offspring. Among them are Apogee, Lotopose, Salaminia and Tellmenow, all both stakes winners and stakes producers; the stakes winners Acoma, Aerolite, Askmenow, Athenia, Flying Lee, Letmenow, Libba, Lithe, Papoose and Recover; the stakes-placed Bogle, Equitable, Now Mandy, Paddle, and Pelt; and the stakes producers *Aureole, Bolide, Check Please, Laatokka, Pelisse, Pet, Scylla, Selenga and Who Me.

A number of family groups are represented in the Headley consignment. Three of the mares, Salaminia, Lithe and Last of All, are daughters of Mr. Headley's great foundation matron Alcibiades; and 2 of Salaminia's stakes-winning daughters, Athenia and Libba, are also in the sale. Pellicle's dam Pelisse and her 3 daughters, Pelt, Pelure and Rico Ropa, form a similar group. The Kentucky Oaks victor Flying Lee, her daughter Who Me (dam of Yes You) and Who Me's daughter Reind are likewise included in the dispersal. Other mother-and-daughter combinations are Apogee and Acoma, Bolide and Aerolite, and Check Please and Recover. Two pairs of full sisters—Papoose and Paddle, and Askmenow and Alantish—are also in the Headley bunch.

Of the entire group, 23 are believed in foal—8 to Mr. Trouble, 7 to Revoked, 4 to *Rico Monte, 3 to Menow and 1 to Pinebloom.

My Brush

My Brush, dam of the good grass runner Brush Burn, has again been pronounced in foal to *Bernborough, Brush Burn's sire. The unraced daughter of Menow from War Admiral's full sister Military Brush has a full sister

Moveable Brush Jumps

The French Have Perfected Steeplechase Jumps That Can Be Moved On and Off Turf Courses

George L. Ohrstrom, publisher of The Chronicle, has recently brought back from France blueprints and photographs of moveable steeplechase jumps that seem to offer a perfect solution to the problems of race track executives who would like to alternate turf racing on the flat, steeplechasing and hurdle races. Like most good inventions it is remarkably simple—the kind of device which makes one wonder why it was never thought of before. When the problem was originally presented to the Societe d'Encouragement—the parent body of French racing—they turned it over to their official engineers, P. Martin & Cie., of 9 rue Champion, Maisons-Laffitte. The Messrs. Martin came back with the device which is illustrated herewith. It operates on the plunger principle with a mechanism which is practically identical with the greasing racks on which cars are raised, lowered and turned at most service stations. On one side of the rack is a long steel beam on which either hurdle or brush jumps are built in such a way as to give full protection to a horse in case he should make a mistake and blunder through them. On the opposite side is a counterweight, so that the whole rack is in balance and can easily be turned.

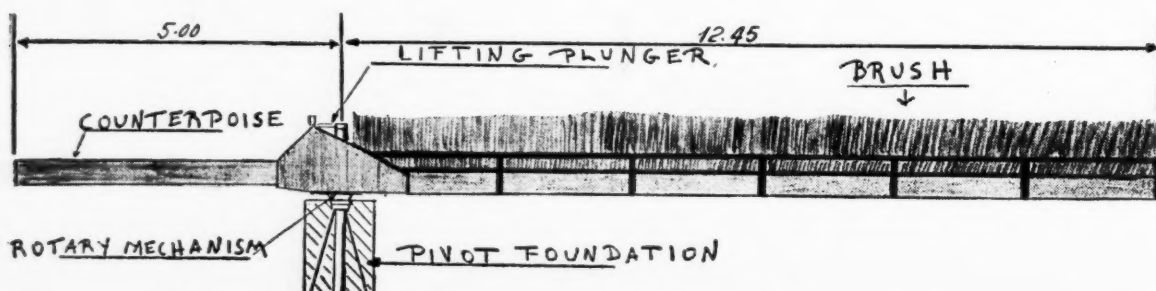

The jumps are constructed in pairs on opposite sides of the track and the right length to meet in the middle when they are in place. The blueprints which appear herewith illustrate the equipment used at the Enghien course. All figures are in metres. It will be noted that when both jumps are in place they make a span of 25 metres or about 82 feet, more than enough space for the number of horses which ordinarily race through the field in this country. The photograph shows a similar installation at Maisons-Laffitte, just outside of Paris. Where less width is required a single jump can be used with a wing on the end.

With the Martin jump one could actually run turf, hurdle and brush races on the same course on the same afternoon. Naturally the hurdle and brush jumps would be separated and placed in alternate positions. When not in use the jumps are lowered so that they rest parallel with the course and just inside the guard rail. When put in use they are raised, turned so as to be at right angles and across the course, and then lowered into position on the course.

Through the kindness of Horatio Luro a set of blueprints has been turned over to George D. Widener, President of Belmont Park. It would certainly seem that the Martin invention offers a most practical solution for the better class tracks in this country, whose patrons want more variety than the old eight flat races a day.

The Work of the M.F.H. Association

Writer Is Sole Survivor of Group Which Organized M.F.H.A. In February, 1907

A. Henry Higginson

The Editor of The Chronicle has asked me to write an article for the paper, dealing in particular with the help the Masters of Foxhounds Association of America has given to organized foxhunting. His original suggestion was that I should lay particular emphasis on the activities of the Association during the first decade of its existence, but this I feel would not tell the story with sufficient clearness, since it was not until after the close of the First World War that the organization began to function well. In fact its existence was not even known to many of the Masters of the smaller foxhound packs of the Southern and Western States.

The Association was founded by a number of prominent American hunting men under a constitution adapted to American conditions along the lines of the similar organization in England. Few hunting men in the British Isles realize that the sport of foxhunting is contemporary on both sides of the Atlantic, because its development was so much more rapid and better organized in Great Britain than in America, particularly prior to the foundation of the Masters of Foxhounds Association of America in 1907.

It was on the evening of the 14th February, 1907, that a number of Masters of Foxhounds met at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City, at the invitation of Harry W. Smith, and formed the Masters of Foxhounds Association of America, adopting a constitution and by-laws following generally along the lines of The Masters of Foxhounds Association in England. At that time the officers elected were:—President, Major W. Austin Wadsworth; Chairman of the Hunt Committee, Harry W. Smith; and Secretary-Treasurer, Henry G. Vaughn. These officers, together with Messrs. Westmoreland Davis, Edward Crozier, R. Penn Smith, Thomas Hitchcock, Sr., Charles E. Mather, John R. Valentine and myself, a group of which I am the sole survivor, were proposed to act as a Hunt Committee.

On the 15th of the following May, Messrs. Wadsworth, Hitchcock, Smith and Vaughn met at the Knickerbocker Club and made some revisions of the constitution and by-laws as drafted at the previous meeting; the principal change being the substitution of an Executive Committee to manage the affairs of the Association in place of the proposed Hunt Committee.

As far as I can remember, the activities of the newly formed Association in its initial year, were confined to the management of the Hound Show, which had been instituted the previous summer at South Lincoln, Massachusetts, by a committee composed of Robert F. Perkins, Charles W. Keyes, and the present writer. Although the show was a great success, it was deemed wise after a couple of years to transfer it to New York, where the Westminster Kennel Club—thanks to the kindness of its Chairman, Mr. William Rauch gave Peterborough classification for foxhounds and designated the last day as "Hound Show Day" for a number of years. This show, although not held under the auspices of the Masters of Foxhounds Association was recognized by them and became an annual fixture until the entry of the United States into the World War, in 1917, the last year in which there was a regular Hound Show at The Old Madison Square Garden.

Major Wadsworth, the first President of the Association, resigned after one year's tenure of office, remaining on the Executive Committee, but being succeeded in the President's Chair by Thomas Hitchcock, Sr. In 1912, Harry W. Smith, whose energies were responsible for the foundation of the Association, was elected President and he was followed in 1915 by the present writer who remained in office until 1932, when he resigned in favour of the late Henry G. Vaughan, who had held the office of Secretary-Treasurer of the Association ever since its foundation and to whom the Association will always be deeply indebted for his many wise counsels and his tireless work on its behalf. It was through his efforts that the filing of maps of the Recognized Hunts was brought to its present state of completeness, and it was his cool head and legal acumen which helped to bring the Association through many of the troublous times which it had to encounter.

The Masters of Foxhounds Association is composed of Masters and ex-Masters of Organized Hunts. The members each year elect a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer and nine members-at-large, each to serve three years and not to be eligible for election to succeed himself. The members-at-large of the Executive Committee are elected from Districts; namely, New England, New York-New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland-Delaware, Virginia, Southern, Midwest, Western and Canada.

It has authority and jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to organized hunting, registration and recording of hunting countries by filing maps of the same and otherwise; recognition of Hunts; changes or disputes in regard to hunting countries, and the conduct of organized hunting in general.

The Hunts Committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association is composed of eleven members, of whom (four) are elected annually by the Board of Stewards of the N. S. & H. Association; these and the other seven have jurisdiction over all matters pertaining to Hunt Racing, Race Meetings, the issuance of Qualified Hunters' certificates, Gentlemen Rider's certificates, and amateur racing activities in general.

These two organizations, working in conjunction with the American Horse Shows Association, which has jurisdiction over recognized Horse Shows throughout the country, form a sort of tribunal. This, to my way of thinking, is one of the most important steps ever taken in the government of sport. The years which followed the adoption of this plan were difficult ones and fraught with many pitfalls. As President of the Masters of Foxhounds Association, Chairman on the Hunts Committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association and a member of the Board of Governors of The American Horse Shows Association, it was my privilege to act as a sort of liaison officer between the various organizations and to see that the terms of the reciprocal agreement were carried out; in this task Henry Vaughan who, like myself, was a member of all three organizations, gave me the greatest help and support. We had bitter opposition from some members who sought to secede from the parent body and set up a new organization of their own but, thanks to the firm, though moderate, counsel of our Secretary, all discussions were ultimately brought to a happy conclusion, and the experience was a valuable one for Mr. Vaughan when he came to undertake the Presidency of the M. F. H. Association many years later. No one who knows the inside history of those times will fail to recognize the important part he played—least of all the men who served on the committees with him and knew how his wise advice helped to save us from disruption and bring the ship safe out of stormy waters and into the calm sea again.

It seems odd to recall those early days when half a dozen of us sat around a little iron table in Harry Steven's restaurant in the Old Madison Square Garden, where the annual meetings of the M. F. H. Association were held prior to 1915. It seems odd too, in these days, to remember the dinner which the Association gave that year in honour of Captain C. F. P. McNeill in the dining room of The Riding Club in East 58th Street, New York City. Our guest, who at that time was engaged on work for the British Remount Service, had been Master of the North Cotswold and the Grafton and had acted as judge at the Hound Show held on the day of the dinner. It was the first gathering of the Members of the Association, and the custom of holding a dinner each year, inaugurated that night, has continued ever since.

When the First World War started in 1914, I think there were few Americans, particularly those in the hunting world, who realized that within a year it was to take many of England's best sportsmen. In fact, it was not until more than a year had gone by that we began to realize that hunting in England was very seriously affected. At that first dinner to Captain McNeill mentioned above, he spoke of the effect that the war was having on hunting across the sea and said that he feared that the sport would receive a blow from which it would be slow in recovering.

Just before the United States declared war and joined the Allies, there was a movement on foot to help the Masters across the water by taking care of such hounds as could not be taken care of in England. This was at a time when scarcity of food in England made it look as if it might become necessary to destroy a great many hounds and at that time a letter was written to the Secretary of the Masters of Foxhounds Association in England offering to look after any reasonable number of hounds (up to 500 couple) and to return them after the War. The Masters of Foxhounds in England wrote a most appreciative letter thanking Americans for the offer but saying that the great need had passed and, lucky it was, for, as I have already said, we were deep in the struggle ourselves ere another six months had passed.

I mention all this because I feel that all readers of The Chronicle should know how strong the feeling between the sportsmen of both nations is. The years between 1915 and 1920 were difficult ones for the organization, not only because of the War, but it also had to deal with many critical situations which arose in the government of sport, fox-hunting, steeplechasing, and horse shows.

I think that perhaps the greatest help that the M. F. H. Association of America has given to foxhunting has been the publication of The Foxhound Stud Book. This was started by the writer in 1909 and the success which attended the publication of the first four volumes, which included only those hounds whose pedigrees could be traced direct to the English Foxhound Stud Book, was such that the Executive Committee of the M. F. H. Association of America voted "That A. Henry Higginson, as Keeper of the Foxhound Kennel Stud Book of America, be authorized and empowered to spend not to exceed $300 in the establishment of a method for collecting the data necessary for the compilation of a Consolidated Foxhound Stud Book i. e., listing the English, Welsh, American and Cross-bred Hounds owned or controlled by Members of this Association only."

The writer thereupon set to work and was lucky enough to obtain the help of the late Colonel Julian I. Chamberlain, to whose unflinching efforts both the writer and the Association owe a great deal. Blanks were prepared and sent to all the Members of the Association with a request for such information as could be given and, although the response was not as great as the writer had hoped, he was very glad to present to the Association a list of forty-four packs of hounds (sixty-nine groups of the different types) whose Masters replied to his request.

It was a very difficult question to decide just what hounds to admit into this, the first volume, which should contain American and Cross-bred entrants, because records in the Kennels where these hounds had been bred had not, in some cases, been kept in a systematic manner and, with no regular book of references such as existed in the case of all English hounds, some of the pedigrees sent were very fragmentary. Nevertheless, it seemed best to admit practically all those hounds, either American or Cross-bred, in every case where sire and dam were known. In a number of cases where it was found that hounds had been used to breed from whose pedigrees were entirely lacking, they were admitted as "Foundation Stock" in order that there might be a record for future generations.

With the publication of the fifth volume, the work of the writer in compiling and editing the Foxhound Kennel Stud Book of America ceased and the work was taken over by Mr. Joseph J. Jones who has been responsible for the Stud Book ever since. I think perhaps I may here quote from my preface to the sixth volume of the Stud Book, published in 1937:—

"With the publication of this, the Sixth Volume of the Foxhound Kennel Stud Book of America, the new Editor presents his initial effort since his appointment by the Association as Official Keeper of the Stud Book. As Keeper of the Stud Book for many years, it has been my pleasure to help and instruct the present Editor, as far as I was able, in the many and onerous duties incumbent upon him and I may say that, in my opinion, the Association is very lucky to have found a young man who not only appreciates the honour and trust which have been placed upon him by his appointment to the office of Keeper of the Stud Book, but who is also willing to put the time and thought and intelligence into the work which is absolutely essential for its success. Mr. Jones has consulted with me concerning every move that he has made in building up a workable scheme for this new volume, and I am happy to say that his efforts have evidently been appreciated by those Masters of Hounds who have sent him their lists and answered his questions fully and promptly."

Another facet of the Association's work is the Hunt Servants' Benefit Fund which was started at an Association Dinner in 1930 by the sale of two Welsh Foxhounds, Furrier and Ringwood. These had been most generously donated by the late Lord Davies, M. F. H. to be auctioned at the close of the dinner. No one who was present that night will forget the spirited bidding which went on, or the masterly

Bryn Mawr Hound Show

Challenge Cup For the Champion American Foxhound Won By Orange County Hunt's Mistress

Alexander Mackay-Smith

As the shadows lengthened across the grounds of the Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club at Media, Pennsylvania on the afternoon of September 11th, a dense crowd of spectators pressed about a ring which contained two hounds. The occasion was the 33rd annual Bryn Mawr Hound Show. The judging of the other divisions—English, Cross-bred, Penn-Marydel, and Beagle—had been completed earlier in the day. In consequence all attention was centered on the ring in which Jackson H. Boyd and W. Ozelle Moss were winding up their task of judging the 94 hounds from 10 packs which made up the American division. On one side was the tri-colored Middleburg Hermit '53, a remarkably well developed youngster, who had worked his way up from first in the unentered dog hound class to winning the third Mr. Newbold Ely's Hounds Challenge Cup for the Champion American Foxhound Dog. On the other side was the red Orange County Mistress '50, her pedigree studded with Bryn Mawr champions. The class at issue was the challenge cup for the Champion American Foxhound of the show, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jeffords.

S. Prentice Porter and E. R. Stettinius III, Joint Masters of Orange County, with a particularly gracious gesture, had asked Sterling Leach, who for so many years was huntsman to that pack, to handle the bitch which he had raised as a puppy. This arrangement was apparently most agreeable to Mistress who showed perfectly for her old friend, standing like a statue. Contrary to the old saying, youth had to make way for age. The tri-colored ribbon went to the lady in red and with it the handsome silver cup, Mistress' win being the fifth for Orange County since it was put in competition.

Orange County was also the victor in the pack class, the red ring-necks with white-tipped tails making a remarkably uniform and well mannered showing. An unusual feature in this class were the five couple shown by the Potomac Hunt all of which were from two litters whelped by Tillie '47. The latter is definitely a hard working girl. This year she produced two more litters totalling 27 puppies in all—the mother of the Gracchi.

Essex and Brandywine were also winners in the American division, the former taking the entered dog and unentered bitch classes, the latter the class for the best stallion hound with three of his get, beating Middleburg, the only other entry.

Thanks to Dennison B. Hull, Master of the Fox River Valley, who brought no less than 27 hounds from his country in Illinois, there was an excellent showing of English hounds. Two years ago Mr. Hull's hounds beat the Cheshire in the pack class, but since then the tables have been reversed. Honors were otherwise pretty equally divided, Cheshire taking the champion dog with Brocklesby Wrangler '47 and Fox River the champion bitch with their Canopy '48.

In the cross-bred division honors were again divided. Meadow Brook dominated the dog hound classes and took champion bitch and champion of the show. Green Spring Valley took the pack class, stallion and brood bitch classes and both classes for unentered bitches. Marlborough and Vicmead also took home a number of the lesser ribbons.

Dean Bedford's task as judge was made more difficult by the fact that the cross-breeds varied in type from straight English to a hound closely approaching those in the American ring except, perhaps, for added substance.

The Penn-Marydel (or Eastern Sho') division was dominated by three packs. Radnor won the champion hound, Mr. Jeffords the pack class and champion dog, while Rose Tree accounted for the stallions and the brood bitches. Huntingdon Valley was also an exhibitor.

A feature of the show in former years was revived in the Horn Blowing contest, open to active Masters of foxhound and beagle packs and their staffs. Judges in these classes were Stanley Reeve and Fletcher Harper, who sat on the opposite side of a brush jump from the contestants so that the latter were invisible. Aiden Regan, whipper-in to the Fox River Valley, won the English horn class after a blow-off with Charlie Smith, kennel-huntsman to the Treveryn Beagles, a frequent winner of these contests when he was huntsman to Mr. Stewart's Cheshire Foxhounds. In the cow horn class Sterling Leach, huntsman to the Fairfax was the winner, with Howard Gardener second; the latter carries the horn for Blue Ridge. A gracious and accomplished figure among the English horn contestants was Mrs. John Hannum, Master of the Cheshire, who gave an excellent and much-applauded performance. The trophies, two silver horns presented by The Chronicle, were brought by air from England by the publisher George L. Ohrstrom, arriving only a few hours before the event.

A particularly successful feature of the show was the new arrangement of the grounds. Under the leadership of President Lawrence Jones five contiguous rings were set up south of the grand stand, enabling spectators to see a great deal better than in former years when the facilities were more scattered. Instead of the stables which formerly served as kennels for the day, new kennels were set up at the foot of the grand stand and adjacent to the rings, thus cutting down the day's mileage to a marked and much appreciated extent.

The number of hounds and number of packs entered exceeded any previous show. All in all this was certainly the best show held since the war and probably the best of the 33 which have been held since the event was founded.

FOREWORD

J. Watson Webb

President of the Masters of Foxhounds Association

This being my fifth and last Foreword as President of the Masters of Foxhounds Association of America for the Annual Roster of the Organized Hunts, I am going to attempt to predict what the future holds for fox-hunting.

During the past five years I have had the opportunity to learn a great deal about the problems that had to be met by the individual hunts. As we know these have been many, such as the anti-rabies campaign in the countries of several hunts which resulted in a material reduction of foxes, and sport in these areas suffered correspondingly. From the reports we have, rabid foxes have now greatly diminished, if not entirely disappeared. Then the growth of our cities and the development of new suburban communities continues, and as a result more and more hunts find that much of their country, that a few years ago was farming and grazing land, has now become suburban. In some cases through highways have cut hunting territories in two. The deer problem with the increase of white tailed deer is also serious, and they are now appearing even in suburban areas where they had never been before.

The Association has always tried to do whatever was possible to alleviate these problems, but they actually had to be met and solved by the hunts themselves. That they have been solved is proved by the reports received just recently from the Recognized and Registered Hunts which for the season 1952-1953 show that a total of 5144 meets were held. This is a good average.

Knowing that the Hunts are meeting and overcoming these problems allows me to make prediction for foxhunting in the future. Any sport, or business, which has the spirit behind the efforts necessary to overcome such difficulties can not possibly fail, and as foxhunters have such spirit and the will to find a way they will continue to enjoy their sport for many years to come.

Again I wish to thank all of them for their cooperation and support, and to wish them a most successful season and future.

handling of the bidders by Benny Cook, at that time Master of the Jacobs Hill Hunt, who extracted something over two thousand dollars and thus started a fund which was augmented that night by subscriptions to the total sum of $9,110, as a foundation for this worthy cause.

I feel that I cannot close this article without extending my thanks to the Editor of The Field who has helped me materially in the writing of the above by allowing me to quote freely from an article which I wrote for that paper three years ago. I wish also to state my great happiness when I received the news recently that Mr. Joseph Jones is going to continue his valuable work for the Association as Keeper of the Stud Book. It would be very hard to replace him and we do not want to have to try to do so. God send a far day and may I not see it.

There's a vale for which I'm sighting,
 I can see its fences still.

And my thoughts go backward flying
 With the pack to Golden Hill.

I can hear that welcome "holloa;
 "G-O-N-E AWAY—He's broke at last"

Hear the thundering hoofs that follow
 As I ride into the past.

Memories, bitter sweet come thronging,
 As I pace the prison ground

And my heart is sick with longing
 For a sight of horse and hound.
 But however drear the days be,
 Fair or foul, or rain or shine
 Not the Fates themselves can rob me
 Of those Hunts which once were mine.

Pause a moment, oh my brothers
 Who at home so glibly prate
 How you hope to see Foxhunting
 Soon abolished by the State.
 We have fought for you, and gladly,
 Will you now requite us thus?
 Kill the sport we love so madly?
 Think what hunting means to us.

For the sake of those who're absent
 For the sake of those who're gone
 All these gallant cheery comrades
 Who once rallied to the horn:
 For the youngster, true to breeding,
 Longing now the game to learn—
 Hear us soldier exiles pleading
 Keep it going till we return.

Beagles At Bryn Mawr

Treweryn Beagles Win Pack Class After 23 Years Spent In Accomplishing Mission

Beagler

The 33rd annual Bryn Mawr Hound Show at the Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club, Media, Pennsylvania, drew a smaller entry of the "Merry Little Hounds", this year due to the disbanding of the famous Vernon-Somerset pack because of the death of their Master, that great sportsman, Richard V. N. Gambrill. It was good to see his famous blood lines carried on by the other packs due to the generosity and farsightedness of his widow, Edith Gambrill, who gave away some of his pack to each of the other active recognized Beagle Packs. Showing Vernon-Somerset Hounds this year were—Buckram of Long Island; Sandanona of Millbrook, New York; Sir-Sister from Boston, and Treweryn of Pennsylvania.

The oldest active recognized pack in America, the Sir-Sister, founded by the late Chetwood Smith of Boston in 1903, made their initial entry this year and with great success, winning the 15" unentered dog class and the 15" unentered bitch class with their Theron's Casanova and Theron's Cornelia, litter mates by the famous Sir-Sister Ebro which won the 3-hour special pack stake at the National in the field for two years—out of Theron's Susan. The present Joint-Masters, Henri Prunaret and Mrs. Edward Dane, deserve great credit in picking two such good ones as stud fees! Cornelia then went on to become champion 15" bitch of the show.

Another New England victory went to the Waldingfield. Their unentered Postman, by that good field hound Waldingfield Tango—their Problem took the 13" Dog tri-color. Postman was also awarded the National Beagle Club Challenge Cup presented by Mrs. Jean Austin duPont for the best 13" beagle bred and owned by an exhibitor.

The Liseter Beagles, of Mrs. Jean Austin duPont took the other two championship classes, winning the 15" champion dog class with Liseter Merry Rex 1951, by Ch. Liseter Merryriad—their Queen and the 13" champion bitch class with Liseter Charming 1952, by Ch. Liseter Flyer—their Ch. Joyful.

by winning the National Beagle Club Challenge Cup, presented by the late Richard V. N. Gambrill, M. B. for the best 15" beagle bred and owned by exhibitor, with their Desire 1949, by Ch. Liseter Merryriad—their Dolly.

The big upset of the show came when the Treweryn Beagles took the pack class for the best 5 couple of Beagles with their 13" pack winning the Second Liseter Hall Trophy for the best 13" pack and the Third Vernon-Somerset Challenge Cup for the best 5 couple, 13" or 15". Treweryn had been trying for 23 years to win this class and a great cheer went up from the gallery as this local pack won. The pack was shown by David (Bun) Sharp, Master, with John Todd whipper-in, Continued on Page 31 and was conditioned by Kennel Huntsman Charles Smith, late of Mr. Stewards' Cheshire Foxhounds. Five packs of beagles were shown and they made a pretty sight as green coats and white breeches mixed with the pink of the fox hound men on the picturesque Rose Tree Race Course. A close 2nd was the all lemon and white pack of the Waldingfield shown by Joint-Master Josiah Child with Leslie Brown, whipper-in.

"Col." John J. Mansfield of Taunton, Massachusetts was judge and entertained us all with his stories and spontaneous poems after the show. Dean Bedford, who judged cross-bred fox hounds, assisted in the beagle pack class.

As the guests of the Treweryn Beagles the visiting packs met the following morning at 7 a. m. to hunt jack rabbits with a combined pack consisting of 6 couple from Treweryn and 2 couple each from Sandanona, Waldingfield, Buckram and Sir-Sister, making a total of 14 couple. Hare were very plentiful; at least six were found and hounds ran almost continuously for 2 hours in spite of bone dry conditions and almost non-existent scent on plough and in corn fields.

Jim Lamb of Treweryn acted as huntsman for the combined pack and everyone was well pleased with the way strange hounds worked together. Buckram Darter 1947 by Tantiy Barrister—Buckram Domino did some excellent work in the tough spots and the entire pack was together when we decided to call it a day. No mishaps took place except that the "Colonel" claimed he had been bitten by a large black snake with yellow spots. A quick "cure" was found in a nearby car and the poet entertained us all as we adjourned to the Radnor Hunt Club and passed around the Vernon-Somerset Challenge Cup filled to the brim with an excellent milk punch. The punch had no ill effects on a lot of very tired beaglers who had driven most of Thursday, were on their feet at the hound show all day Friday, partook of the Masters' Dinner at the Rose Tree most of Friday night and some who continued at other parties until 5 a. m. Saturday and slept in their cars at the kennels for one hour before hunting.

WEEKLY NEWS

SHOW CIRCUITS

Mrs. Harper 100-Mile Trail Winner

Well Known Fox Hunter Rides Side Saddle To Win Heavyweight Division and Sweepstakes

Earle E. Johnson

The beautiful gray Thoroughbred mare, Umberilda, ridden and conditioned by that wonderful and well known horse woman, Mrs. Fletcher Harper of The Plains, Virginia, was 1st in the heavyweight division and sweepstakes winner in the annual 100 mile endurance ride held at Woodstock, Vermont, September 3-5.

Riding this interesting, scenic and challenging course in the hottest weather ever to be experienced in this well known contest, this home-bred mare, out of one of their favorite hunters, Gilda, and sired by *Barred Umber, finished in almost perfect condition. Ridden side saddle, it was a magnificent tribute to a great horse, a great horsewoman and a great sportswoman.

The winner of the lightweight division was the splendid Morgan gelding Soneldon, sired by the well known stallion Ulendon and out of Ethanelda. He was owned by Mrs. Francis Clark of Amesbury, Massachusetts and very ably ridden and conditioned by her daughter, Jane.

The winner of the junior division was the great little Morgan mare Made-moiselle of Windcrest, by Hilltop Prince—Upwey Casablanca. She was from the Morgan breeding farm, Windcrest of Windsor, Vermont, which is owned by Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Davis, and was beautifully ridden and conditioned by Barry Fossett of Oakland, Maine.

As usual the horses were divided into three divisions, the heavyweight, which carries 180 pounds or more, the lightweight division which carries a minimum of 155 pounds and the junior division for those under 17 years of age. The juniors do not carry weight but must adhere to all the other conditions under which the ride is held.

Forty miles are covered on each of the two days in seven hours each, without penalty and twenty miles the morning of the third day in three hours. One point is deducted for each three minutes that one is late and 40 points are scored on perfect TIME and 60 points on perfect CONDITION. Condition points are deducted for the various changes in the horse that occur between starting and finishing. The evidence of considerable fatigue, sore or tender backs, lameness or shortness in stride, interference marks, cinch galls and other things that might effect the ability of the horse to do another 100 miles, are all noted by the Officials and considered when rating the horse for CONDITION. This is a ride where blood counts in strong finishing but does not necessarily win and we know that any horse that finishes on time and in good condition must have some good blood somewhere in its ancestry.

This is a great ride in which to test your horse and those of you who think that any horse ought to be able to do it easily, should try it some year. You will find that forty measured miles up and down Vermont Hills are really quite a ride and you will learn more about horsemanship and your horse from a ride of this type than from any other event that you have ever been in.

Sweepstake Winner—Umberilda, Mrs. Fletcher Harper.

Portland Exchange Club

At the Portland show, Rimwrack and Pitchfork worked their way back into the jumper championship ranks being upset by Paul Parisi's new jumper champion, Pegasus, at the Bethlehem show. Rimwrack won 3 of the 5 jumper classes and the championship with Ed Ahlberg pinch hitting for Rimwrack's regular rider, Louis Vogeli, who was grounded because of an arm injury. Pitchfork won the amateur class and other good ribbons to claim the reserve title.

Skylark, the little bay hunter owned by Miss Carol Gardner, was the outstanding winner of the Portland show. Skylark and rider Carol turned in winning rounds in each of the 6 working hunter classes, earned 6 blues and 30 points to claim the working hunter tricolor. Miss Sara Boyd's Mountain Air was reserve champion working hunter.

Quentin

Once again the courageous horsemen of this area donned their rain gear and the horses their rubber sheets and headed for Quentin's 19th annual horse show. When we arrived the rains really came. The first and second days of the show classes were run in a steady downpour. But with the covered grandstands and the beautiful setting of the outside course, hunter classes were in full view and the scene on this sloping hill with its beautiful natural hedges and permanent course was ideal for horses and spectators.

The jumping competition was keen as Millarden's Injun Joe and Douglaston Manor's Balko's Edge put on quite a battle. Not far behind was Otis Dodson sneaking in to steal 2nd place in the stake with his wonderful young jumper and hunter, Mr. Gander. High Calcium, the new open jumper champion of Millarden Farms, suffered a slight injury and was unable to finish the show. Injun Joe came through with flying colors to be pinned champion.

ion jumper with Pat Dixon up and Bal-ko's Edge reserve, Adolphe Magavero up.

The working hunter division was not too well filled but in spite of the rain and mud the horses were putting in good rounds. The championship went to the well-deserved Kimberling Hills' Kimberling, ridden throughout the show by Mrs. W. Loeffler. As you know, Betty was out of the irons for the season recovering from a serious operation, so it's good to have her back again, although her husband, Bill, was doing an excellent job during her absence from the show ring. Robby McKinnon piloted his smooth going Tarad to reserve hunter champion.

The conformation hunter champion was Struel and was shown by Miss Roxanne Wagner to score 15 1-2 points. Tied for reserve were Douglaston Manor's Quaker Bonnet and Miss Carla Deubel's For Lou with 12 1-2 points. The final nod went to Quaker Bonnet when the tie was broken after the horses were stripped and judged on conformation.

The last day of the show the sky over head was perfect as the weary rain soaked togs of the horsemen were packed, horses loaded for home, and everyone wishing the excellent hosts, The Quentin Riding Club, better weather next year.

Warrenton

Gate prizes, costume classes, exhibitions by The Flying Dutchman and Warrenton Hounds all gave the Warrenton Horse Show a festive air. Entries were plentiful and of a high caliber, and the regular Labor Day crowd was on hand.

Probably the most coveted trophy is the one that goes to the champion 3-year-old of Virginia. Judged as an independent class, a horse qualifies for it by winning a 1st and 2nd in any Virginia show. When Judge Arthur White pinned the blue ribbon on Miss Betty Beryl Schenck's Pugilistic it was a popular decision. Miss Schenck, who campaigns a one horse stable, got Pugilistic when she sold her Sun Hazard, last year's working hunter champion, and they have been a winning combination this year.

Runnerup to Pugilistic and the green hunter champion of the show was Spain's Armada. This nice bay colt owned by Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Motch was also 2nd to Waverly Farm's The Cad in the Alex Calvert Memorial class which listed some 30 entries.

The most consistent winner throughout the show was Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burke's Short Day. The big gray, ridden by Mrs. Burke, showed in both the green and conformation divisions and turned in one good round after another to win 3 firsts and 3 seconds and be pinned reserve conformation champion to Waverly Farm's Tidal Wave, ridden by Mrs. Jane Pohl Rust.

Ponies took over the ring Monday morning with Miss Jackie Bragg's Chick-a-Linda topping the ranks to be pinned champion. A special horseman-ship class was held with secret judges who observed the young riders in the ring and outside. Miss Beverly Harrison was awarded the blue in this class over Miss Lolly Lawrence.

Westmoreland Hunt

With 113 horses entered in 29 classes it was inevitable that the show would run well into darkness. However, it was gratifying to see so many horses and the classes all well filled.

Stirrup Hill's Extravagance with William Stirling up, won the Western Pennsylvania Hunts' Challenge Trophy, this trophy being competed for throughout the season at the four Western Pennsylvania shows. This strong, good going bay horse never being pinned out of the ribbons, he accumulated 9 points.

The Farmer's Cup class, a perpetual Challenge Trophy in competition since 1931, was won for the fourth time by Dr. Ralph Lynch. Dr. Lynch first won this class in 1940, his next tie was in 1951, followed by winnings in 1952 and 1953. The last two years his grey horse, Blue Dick, carried him for the winning rounds. Dr. Lynch's quadruple honor tops Miss Margaret Coulter's three wins in 1931-34 and 35.

Racing Review

carry 116 and the older females 123.

In the Beldame Handicap, on September 19, two runners carried overscale imposts. Grecian Queen, 125, and Sabelle 118. Both are three-year-olds. The five-year-old Atalanta and the four-year-old Devilkin each toted 121.

If this race can be used to show that the scale of weights is wrong, you'll have to explain it to me. It indicates that a superior three-year-old should not be carrying more than a real good five-year-old, which is about what everybody thought.

Atalanta made it look easy. She projected herself into the lead and stayed there. Sometimes she was four lengths ahead and sometimes only three. At no time did it appear that any rival was going to catch her.

Grecian Queen faltered under her weight assignment and the burden of favoritism. She was held at 1:10 to 1.

Miss Traffic, the 80 to 1 longshot of the race, performed well under her 106 pounds to finish second. La Corredora was third.

Atalanta, by Count Fleet—Omayya, by *Sir Gallahad III, was bred by Brookmeade and raced successfully for that stable. Last season, the mare was purchased by Mr. John W. Galbreath for his Darby Dan Farm.

The $47,600 purse of the Beldame brought Atalanta's 1953 prize money total to $115,475, and her lifetime earnings to $208,580.

On the basis of handicap figures used by a large segment of the crowd present for the Jeanne d'Arc Stakes, on September 16, Case Goods should have been the winner. She managed it but with improvisations that could not have been predicted through analysis of the data furnished in the Daily Racing Form.

The two-year-old representative of William Goadby Loew jumped away on top, just as a favorite should in a six-furlong race, but, bending around the turn, she made an unscheduled run toward the outer rail and relinquished her prime position.

The argument Jockey Dave Gorman put up must have seemed reasonable to the young lady, as she rushed back into the contest and into the lead and drew out to win by a length and a half.

Michikee, at 50 to 1, maintained a maiden status (that has held up for eight races but will be dissolved soon) by finishing second. Maid of Flight, second choice, was third.

Case Goods (exactly the right name to give a filly by Case Ace out of Damaged Goods) won the Astoria Stakes at Aqueduct in June. She has been first three times and second twice in five starts. With the $8,000 she received for winning the Jeanne d'Arc her total stands $22,825.

The chestnut filly was bred by the Estate of K. N. Gilpin and was purchased by Mr. Loew at Saratoga last year for $15,500.

Jampol, Combat Boots and Timely Reward went to Rhode Island for a shot at the easy money of the Narragansett Special but a New England regular got the main end of the purse.

Sailed Away, the Vigilant Stable's color-bearer took the prize, after Jampol, Combat Boots and Andre had wrangled for the lead for most of the mile-and-three-sixteenths journey. Jockey DeSpirito restrained his mount behind the leaders until they wore out one another, then Sailed Away moved through to score by a half a length.

Jampol finished second, followed by Elixir and Combat Boots.

A four-year-old colt, Sailed Away is by War Admiral—Gentle Tryst, by *Sir Gallahad III.

He was bred by Greentree Stud. The $22,350 purse put his earnings at $65, 123.

Golden Gate

The Pacific Handicap, opening feature of the Golden Gate Fields meeting, was taken by the Cal-Bred Abba's Bull, a son of the old West Coast favorite, Bull Reigh,—Bon Ah-Ba, by Enoch.

The four-year-old gelding had been claimed by the Trinity Stable, his present owner, for $12,500, in July at Hollywood.

The Pacific purse was worth $10,250, and brought the year's total for Abba's Bull to $33,050.

He was bred by C. T. Clifford.

Aqueduct 'Chasing

then outgamed the pace setting *Pacific Pact from the final hurdle to the wire. His winning margin was a length and a half. Two and a half lengths back Red Martlet garnered third money, after a vain chase of *Pacific Pact from start to finish. The two to one favorite for this race, Lazy F. Ranch's Coveted, turned in a sulky performance to be fourth. This one has displayed some fine running and jumping ability several times this year in good company, but when he is dropped into what would appear a soft spot, he seems to lose interest in the contest.

Fair Hill

Happy Quest with Furnace Run last. *Done Sleeping had duplicated his winning outing of 1952 but this time he established a new record of 6.32 1-5, lowering the time of 6.36 in which Invulnerable was clocked in the inaugural running of this race in 1949.

Six races were carded for the afternoon and the first field went postward in The Andora, about 1 1-16 miles on the turf. Arthur E. Pew, Jr.'s *Tico Tico, which is currently leading in points on the flat for the United Hunts "high score award", was hustled to the front by Jockey R. Bailey, Jr., followed by Mrs. Alan M. Scaife's Hadhrmut. By the quarter Richard K. Mellon's *Cascadilla and Joskey W. Lane had moved ahead of *Tico Tico and this pair continued to head the field at the half. At this point C. Mahlon Kline's Good Cards and Jockey S. Riles had moved into 2nd and to card two well known infield stakes at Fair Hill, The Battleship (transferred to hurdles) and The Manly. The Battleship brought out a disappointing field of 2. Emmett Roberts' winner over hurdles on the 12th, Fleur de Joie, had her same rider, Jockey E. Carter, in the saddle. James F. McHugh's River Jordan, which won on the flat the previous Saturday, was ridden by Jockey E. Phelps. Fleur de Joie held sway until after the 5th hurdle. Jockey Phelps tried to come through on the inside but then went to the outside after landing over the 5th. He made his bid successfully and was never headed, winning by 10 lengths.

The Manly was over the small brush course at about 2 miles and was really an outstanding race. The field started in front of the stands and raced around the turn and down the backside to the 1st jump. Morris H. Dixon, Sr.'s *Palaja and Jockey M. Ferral, the winning pair in the Foxcatcher National Cup 'Chase the week before, were away fast and led Mrs. W. B. Watkins' Spike Seven and miles over hurdles for maiden 3-year-olds and upward. The Saturday before, Harry S. Nichols' Step Dance had finished 2nd in the 1st division of the Lewisville 'Cap on the flat and in this hurdle event, he was away fast under Jockey J. Murphy. Over the 2nd hurdle, Mrs. Ian S. Montgomery's Round Top and Jockey E. Carter were establishing the pace ahead of W. D. Cleland's Nova Luna and Jockey F. Schulhofer. At the 6th Round Top (which was being called over the loudspeaker as "Top Round") was still heading the field but Jockey Murphy had been improving his position on Step Dance and was 2nd over this hurdle. Step Dance was sent on to the front and after completing the 9-hurdle course, stayed close to the rail on the flat to race under the wire ahead of Jockey M. Ferral on Mrs. W. C. Wright's Sea Hero. Sea Hero had won the flat race on the 12th in which Step Dance was 2nd. Behind these two to get a share of the purse were Round Top and Mrs. M. T. Jones' Wygant. A claim of foul against the winner was not allowed.

In the waning days of the Saratoga meeting, Mrs. V. G. Cardy's Sun Shower (No. 3), Jockey P. Smithwick up, drew away from Brookmeade Stable's His Boots (No. 1), Jockey E. Carter in the irons, to win the Saratoga Steeplechase Handicap—his 3rd stakes win.

were racing strongly. The field had been lessened after the quarter when Jockey M. Hoey pulled up A. R. Nicholson's Sun Spur which had shown no inclination to run. This left the remaining 6 horses fairly well strung out. In the stretch, Good Cards took over the pace setting duties and came on to win with *Tico Tico placing over Hadhrmut. Good Cards joined the hunt meeting ranks on September 12 and finished 3rd in his first outing on the turf.

The Little Egypt was about 1 1/4 miles on the turf and 8 horses faced the starter. Quickly taking the lead from Edward S. Voss, Jr.'s early running Privilege, Thomas Glennon's Brown Rover went to the top under the reins of Jockey M. Hoey. Rounding the turn, Jockey S. Riles had his troubles with Mrs. W. C. Wright's Cable Bug as the 3-year-old went wide and had to be brought back on the course. Brown Rover was still maintaining his lead until the horses came around the turn to enter the stretch. Moving up steadily on the backside was L. C. Williams' *Allflor which Jockey J. Murphy had rated far back in the early stages. This 7-year-old German-bred gelding responded well in the stretch drive, came up on the outside to cross the line a length in front of Privilege with C. Mahlon Kline's Watch Dog 3rd and Brown Rover 4th. This made two straight victories for *Allflor as he had won over hurdles the previous Saturday.

With steeplechasing no longer scheduled at Pimlico, arrangements were made Jockey E. Carter and P. T. Cheff's Moot over the first 7 jumps. Moot had raced well over this same course the week before to win the Fair Hill 'Chase.

Back at the 1st jump for a complete turn of the course, Jockey D. Thomas and Moot went to the top with Spike Seven 2nd and *Palaja 3rd and Mrs. T. A. Randolph's Uncle Joe 4th. This order was held over the 9th but Jockey M. Ferral wasn't giving up easily and at the 11th, the liverpool, he had *Palaja in behind Moot. Meantime Jockey A. P. Smithwick had improved his position on George T. Weymouth's Banner Waves and was now 3rd. Around the turn and into the 12th, Jockey Thomas and Moot were still showing the way with *Palaja, Banner Waves and Jockey T. Field on Uncle Joe making their bids. Over this jump Jockey T. McFarland and Harry S. Nichols' Ginny Bug went down.

Only 2 jumps remained and at the 13th Moot went over 1st with Uncle Joe and Banner Waves jumping as a pair in front of *Palaja. Moot opened a 2-length gap over the 14th and last but Jockey Smithwick and Banner Waves were closing fast, only a nose in front of Uncle Joe. In the stretch drive it appeared that anything could happen as the 3 leading horses were really going all out. Under the wire it was Moot by 3/4; Banner Waves by 1/2 and Uncle Joe by 5 over *Palaja with James McHugh's Jam 5th and last. Spike Seven broke down badly and fell over the 14th.

INDIGNANT

*Palaja, the French horse for which G. H. (Pete) Bostwick paid $16,000 after that son of Olmedo—Paros II, by Mousko had set a new record over the big course at Fair Hill, Maryland in 1951, was so insulted by his $600 price tag at the Belmont Park Paddock Sale, June 10, 1953, that he went out under a great ride by Jockey Melvin Ferral and not only won the Foxcatcher National Cup on opening day at Fair Hill this year but beat his own record.

SEDFIELD HUNT

Sedgefield Hunt between Greensboro and High Point, N. C., will start its hunting season with a warm-up ride at Starmount Farm, the Edward Benjamin estate near Greensboro, on October 10. Joint-Masters Nathan Ayers and Charles Kearns have announced that their first hunt will be October 17 with Huntsman George Thomas aboard the good grey Guard On carrying the horn.

To start the season Mr. Ayers recently purchased the heavy-weight chestnut mare High Life from L. M. Williams of Retreat Farm, Rapidan, Va. The mare is sired by the Misses Shearer's Thellusson which is by Gallant Fox. The sale was made through Delmar Twyman.

M. F. H. Ayers recently sold his home-bred Pine Needle (*Preisrichter—Pine Jewel) to Miss Sally Schwabenton of Sedgefield. Pine Jewel is by *Golden Pine II which had a fine record in France. She was the Master's mount for several seasons. Besides being a regular in the hunting field, Miss Schwabenton has successfully assisted Dudley Williams with showing his great working hunter mare, Bold Anne, to many blue ribbons. Her latest win was the hunter championship at Blowing Rock, N. C.

M. F. H. Ayers has a full brother to Pine Needle, pine Top, in training with Bayne Welker. His Coq d'Esprit filly Tuckstitch is in the Delmar Twyman training barn.

Incidentally, *Preisrichter stood several seasons at the farm of Lawson Dick of Burlington, N. C. and was bred to many Half-bred and Thoroughbred mares. He has several good hunters going now with the Sedgefield pack, among them a brown mare, Princess Anne owned by Muir Lyon of Greensboro and a brown gelding from the wonderful old hunter Black Bonnet which is the mount of Jack Rochelle of High Point.

Sedgefield Hunt goes out Wednesday afternoons and Saturday mornings throughout the season. Members are close enough to Southern Pines (80 miles) to van down Tuesday and Thursday to hunt live fox with the Moore County Hounds. Moore County has a fast drag hunt every Saturday morning. Red fox abound and during the 1951-1952 season Moore County Hounds killed seven red foxes in seven consecutive hunts.—S. B. R.

Today's Hound Breeding Strongly Influenced By Heythrop Rundle '14

Heythrop RUNDLE '14 was one of the great English stallion hounds of his generation in this country. By North Warwickshire RANDOM '11 out of Heythrop GRACIOUS '11 he was imported by J. Watson Webb, President of the Masters of Foxhounds Association, for his Shelbourne pack at Shelbourne, Vermont. He was used extensively at the stud and sired a great proportion of the hounds entered in 1920, 1921 and 1922. He also covered a number of bitches from other packs, notably from Meadow Brook, which for many years made generous use of Shelbourne blood. In 1921 Meadow Brook entered hounds from three litters by RUNDLE '14—Shelbourne RAPTURE '14, Ystrad and Pentrych GRACEFUL '15 and York and Ainsty SUNSHINE '15. From the last litter came Meadow Brook SOLOMON '21, who was destined to have great influence in the stud and in establishing the Meadow Brook cross-bred pack as one of the best in the country. Although the Shelbourne pack has, alas, been dispersed, the bloodlines there developed have gone to many other packs and still exert a strong influence on present-day hound breeding. A notable example is Meadow Brook ABLE '48, winner at the Bryn Mawr Hound Show in 1952 and 1953 of the Challenge Trophy for the Champion Cross-Bred Foxhound of the Show. ABLE '48 traces to many Shelbourne lines, four of them to RUNDLE '14—so the blood of this great hound carries on.

CHANGE

The following change to the Hunt Roster was received after the forms for that section of The Chronicle had been closed.

Through reciprocal agreement with the Meadow Brook Hounds the Smithtown Hunt hunts also the territory of that Hunt, the combined available area therefore comprising practically all of Long Island east from the New York City line to the Peconic Bay at Riverhead, being 60 miles in length and 15 miles in width.

The agreement to which this refers expired a number of years ago, and at the present time neither hunt enters the country of the other except by invitation, which may be extended from time to time.

The country hunted by Smithtown Hunt is rolling, with very large coverts. Fences are all timber, with very little wire; the soil rather sandy. Roughly, the country is 15 by 30 miles, east of Huntington to the Peconic Bay at Riverhead.

At the present time there is no Master for the Smithtown Hunt, the Hon. W. Royden Klein having resigned. The Hunt is managed by a committee consisting of Dr. Arthur W. Fredericks and Mr. Edward J. Gould. The professional huntsman is Gustave Mollet, the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Edward J. Gould, and the Hon. Whipper-in, Mrs. Roger Reynolds, Jr. The address of the secretary is Cuba Hill Road, Greenlawn, L. I., N. Y.

ON FRIENDLY TERMS—Great Dane and 4-month-old fox cub.

DOCTOR'S ORDERS

A keen foxhunting lady in England, some seventy-two years young, had a fall resulting in a broken arm. That evening a friend dining at her house, was surprised to find his hostess at the dinner table and exclaimed, "Didn't the doctor say you should be in bed after that fall and a broken arm?" To which the doughty Diana replied, "Oh, he merely said I should stay in bed tomorrow; he said nothing about tonight!"

ROCKY FORK HEADLEY HUNT

Rocky Fork Headley Hunt opened its cubbing season on September 12. The weather man was kind and furnished a cool morning with rain the night before so that reasonably good sport was furnished the 20 or more who were out in the field for the opening day. Foxes seem to be plentiful in the country and young hounds are working well with older hounds in the pack.

Hunting was followed with a nice hunt breakfast at Rocky Fork Country Club at which the guests were honored with the presence and reminiscences of ex-Masters Edward Durell, Trafford Tallmadge and Morris G. Woodbull. Members are going to sorely miss Mr. Durell when he transfers his hunting activities to Virginia and hope he will be out with them whenever he is in Columbus—W. C. H.

GABRIEL'S TRUMP

Among the circle of interested listeners and spectators at the Horn Blowing Contest, held on September 11 at the Bryn Mawr Hound Show, was Gilbert Mather, Master of the Brandywine Hunt and First Vice-President of the Masters of Foxhounds Association. The first contestant in the Cow Horn Division was Jack Bruce, huntsman of the Rappahannock, who carried a horn nearly as long as his arm. As the first long and sonorous note rang out and echoed back from the near-by grandstand Mr. Mather was heard to say: "Gabriel's Trump! I'd hate to sound that horn near a grave yard. Its hard to say what might come to me besides hounds." P. S. It is reported that Mr. Mather uses an English horn.

REARMED

Horatio Laro successfully made the rounds of Deauville, Chantilly, Longchamps, and Maison la Fitte and we understand came home with some strong candidates for turf and 'chasing honors.
